ABOUT OUR NETWORK

ClickItGolf (CIG) allows our affiliate marketing partners access to get their offers and advertisements in front our database of engaged golfers.

To Golfers, the CIG network offers the appeal of mass deal sites Groupon, Living Social, Coupons.com, and Yelp. In fact, CIG includes many live deals from each of those sites without requiring the user to sign-up or log in.

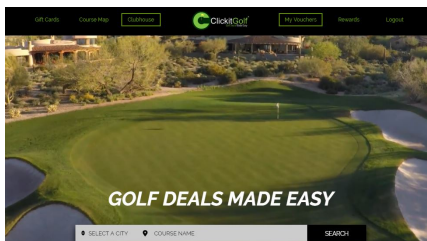

To Advertisers the CIG network provides an interface for reaching a unique new audience, while providing segmented intelligence/data on a our core demographic. Our affiliate marketing partners are able to leverage CIG's vast social network clout and significant search engine equity built up over two decades.

REACH GOLF ENTHUSIASTS

Unlike other sites, our network does not require visitors to register and submit personal details in order to view deals. In addition, golfers are also not forced into choosing a tee time to gain the best price. Since the same deals from other networks are included on CIG, the consumer gets the additional benefit of having all special offers aggregated in one place when visiting any of its geographic affiliated URLs.
